

The Falcon Review

Volume 57, Issue 4C

February 14, 2019

Extra! Extra! Winter Homecoming!

Winter Homecoming 2019

By Katie Feucht

On Saturday, February 9th, 2019, Fairless High School Key Club held their Winter Homecoming. Many schools tend to not have a winter dance anymore. Our school is fortunate enough to have so many students willing to plan, decorate, and attend this dance.

The festivities began with a tapping ceremony on Monday, and a pep rally at the end of the school day on Friday to get the crowd ready for the game against Orrville. The crowning of the queen took place in between the JV and Varsity games. Unfortunately, the game ended with a score of 63-51, and Orrville won. That did not put the Falcons out of their homecoming spirit.

This year the attendants were Brandy Truman, Maddy Hill, Alyssa Owens, Maddy Reese, and Carley Thomas. The king was Adam Tucker. At the crowning ceremony, last year's queen, Haylee Thorpe, crowned Miss Carley Thomas as this year's queen. Congratulations to the court!

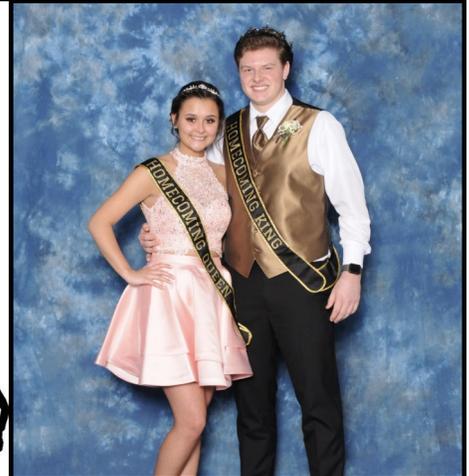

The theme was, "To the Moon and Back." There were over 230 tickets sold to students. Everyone enjoyed their time with their dates and friends as they danced the night away. Some of the decorations included stars with the seniors names, extravagant lighting, and even some exterior illuminations. Many of the students also enjoyed themselves with the photo booth. Thanks to Key Club for putting on such a wonderful and memorable night!

The five senior attendants who make up the 2019 Winter Homecoming Court pose with their chosen escorts. They are Alyssa Owens, Carley Thomas, Brandy Truman, Maddy Hill, and Maddy Reese.

Haylee Thorpe prepares to crown this year's queen with Adam Tucker.

Queen, Carley Thomas, and King, Adam Tucker smile for their official photo at the dance on Saturday evening!