

The Falcon Review

Volume 57, Issue 5A

April 4, 2019

Extra! Extra! All About the Talent Show!

Fairless High School Talent Show

By Bethany Lault

Talent. We all have our different talents, and sometimes we like to show them off. Fairless High School definitely has some talented students.

On Thursday, March 22nd, Fairless held their annual talent show. Tickets were $3, and all proceeds went to Prom. It showcased 14 of our excellent students, from singing, to playing ukulele, to awesome drum solos. The judges this year were Mrs. Jones, Senor Roberts, and Mr. Sarbaugh. The MC was none other than Mr. Bruno.

Christina Anderson took third place singing "All I Want" by Kodaline. Second place went Alyssa Neff, who sang and played ukulele for "Creep" by Radiohead. First place was won by Andrew Rogers, who sang "Believer" by Imagine Dragons. All three won gift cards for their efforts.

Other participating students included Brandy Truman and Emma Engel singing and dancing to "Nowadays" from Chicago, Cora Owen who sang "Kiwi" by Harry Styles, and Reise Lanier singing "Ring of Fire" by Johnny Cash. Jacob Justice performed "Separate Ways" by Johnny Cash on drum set. Bethany Lault sang "I Dreamed a Dream" from the musical Les Miserables, Gracie Pekarek sang "Chasing Cars" by Snow Patrol, and Sarah Brunkhart sang "When the Party's Over" by Billie Eilish. Brianna Childers performed "Someone Like You" by Adele, and Jessica Piercy and Josh Boggs had a duet of "Dear Happy" by Doodle Clark. Destiny Sallinger presented "Missing You" by Fall Out Boy. Last, but not least, Colin Long and Josh Wengerd debuted on "Help" by Pink Guy, with Wengerd on vocals and ukulele, and Long on bass drum and bells.

The show finished out with an encore from Rogers, who sang everyone's favorite, "Dynamite," by the Taio Cruz.

Good job Falcons!

Andrew Rogers took first place, singing "Believer," by Imagine Dragons, as well as an encore of "Dynamite" by Taio Cruz.

Alyssa Neff took second place, singing and playing the ukulele for "Creep" by Radiohead.

Christina Anderson took third place, singing "All I Want" by Kodaline.

Professional photographer will begin @ 5:30 (forms with prices will be available @ time of ticket purchase)

Dinner is served at 7pm
Dance ends at 11pm

Tickets on sale 4/8 to 4/18
$45 per person

Contact Ms. Holland with all questions:
330-767-3444 EXT 2104
jennifer.holland@fairless.sparcc.org

*any student bringing a non Fairless guest must get approval with proper form prior to ticket sale.

Remember to buy your prom tickets in the Study Hall Room! It's sure to be a fantastic night!