

The Falcon Review

VOLUME 58, ISSUE 3B

JANUARY 16, 2020

Winter Homecoming 2020

By: Kendra Feucht

This past week, Fairless celebrated homecoming. The first event that happened was an assembly held for homecoming court to be announced. This took place on Tuesday, January 7th. Five senior girls were nominated for queen, and the king was crowned that morning. The girls were Alyssa Neff, Kiera Ramey, Kendra Feucht, Hailey Woods, and Alexis Peña. The King was Owen Anstine. Key Club also organized a spirit week. On Monday, the theme was Mis-Match Monday, next was Twin Tuesday, Meme Wednesday, Thursday was Dress like a Teacher Day, and Friday was Falcon Spirit Day. On Friday, there was a pep rally held for all students. During the pep rally, there was great music from the band, and exciting cheers from our cheerleaders. We did the tradition of the year cheer, and the seniors of course came out on top. Afterwards, each winter sport team was recognized. Then, there were relay races between a student team and the homecoming court. The winner of that relay was the homecoming court. Since the court won, they had to do a different relay race against a teacher team. Yet again, the court had a victory. Friday night, right before the varsity boys basketball game, the girls were announced and recognized for being on the court. They escorted by one relative. Last year's Queen, Carley Thomas, was then escorted by this year's King, Anstine, to pass down the crown to this year's Queen. Peña was crowned the 2020 Queen of Winter Homecoming. After the crowning, the boys basketball team battled Tuslaw in a rivalry match up. Fairless ended up winning the game in a nail biting 4th quarter. The final score was 58-54. The 2020 Winter Homecoming took place on Saturday from 7-10 p.m., and it was held at the middle school. The theme was Enchanted Garden. At the dance, there was music that was provided by Hats of Entertainment, a photo booth, beautiful decorations, and multiple photo backgrounds. In the cafeteria, the tables were lit with centerpieces, and there was punch, dirt puddings, cake pops, and many other tasty treats. During the dance, the court was announced at 7:30, and they were escorted in by their dates and friends. Overall, students had a wonderful time dancing with all their classmates. We would like to thank Key Club and Mrs. Cibella for all their hard work they put in to make this enchanted night possible.

The court stops and poses for a picture at the dance.

King Owen Anstine and Queen Alexis Peña.

The boys prepare for their game against Tuslaw.